

Leaders in Discussion Series

presented by

In this new professional development series, LAMS invites you to discuss thought-provoking pieces of interest with your colleagues. For our winter discussion, we will examine Intellectual Freedom Stories from a Shifting Landscape, edited by Valerie Nye, and explore how these stories relate to our own experiences from the front lines.

Feb 24 at 3:30pm via zoom

Intellectual Freedom Stories from a Shifting Landscape

Edited by Valerie Nye

Register Here

For questions, contact Erin Kanelos at ekanelos@smithlib.org or 631-360-2480 x400

The Leadership and Management Section (LAMS) of NYLA believes in leadership at every level - you don't have to be the boss to be a leader! Membership is open to all library staff, whether or not you have a library degree or hold a supervisory/managerial position. We are passionate about helping you be a strong library leader in your community. To hear more about this and other great events, join us here.