

The Reference and Adult Services Division and the Computers and Technology Committee of the

Nassau County Library Association

Proudly Present:

Exploring AI in Libraries:

Practical Opportunities and Ethical Considerations

Thursday, October 5, 2023

10:00 - 11:00 am

via Zoom

Join

James Hartmann of the Wantagh Public Library and

James Hutter of the Port Washington Public Library

for an engaging and thought-provoking professional development lecture that delves into the world of Artificial Intelligence (AI) and its transformative impact on libraries. As technology continues to shape the way we interact with information, AI has emerged as a powerful tool with immense potential for libraries.

Register at

<https://ncla.wildapricot.org/event-5420215>

1 CEU Awarded

