

ADULT BATTLE OF THE BOOKS

Saturday, July 18, 4:30 pm - 8:00 pm
@ Sachem Public Library

What's Adult Battle of the Books?

A county-wide trivia competition for adults 18+. Participants read three books and put their knowledge to the test, pub-style.

We need volunteers for our very first
Battle of the Books for adults!

We are looking for:

- Competition Readers
- Judges
- Logistical/Day-of support

Interested?

Please email Vicky Urbelis at vicky@longwoodlibrary.org

What are the roles?

- Competition Readers
 - There are three rounds of regular, pub-style trivia questions during the competition, and one final-round. Competition readers are responsible for reading out the questions that are simultaneously displayed on the screen on competition night (Saturday, July 18, 2026).
- Judges
 - Responsible for scoring the pub-style trivia answer sheets.
- Logistical/Day-of support
 - We'll need help with our setup, snack stations, break down, and other day-of items that may come up.

What are the selected books?

- Fahrenheit 451 by Ray Bradbury
- The Midnight Library by Matt Haig
- The Art Thief by Michael Finkel
